

Rental Application: South Bend Mutual Homes

South Bend Mutual Homes (SBMH) is an affordable cooperative housing community in the city near west side. The community offers 2, 3, and 4 BR single family homes for persons with incomes at or below 60% AMI level.

A housing cooperative is when residents come together to own and control the housing in which they live. The residents form a board of directors in which they elect one another to represent the cooperative as whole.

The benefit of a housing cooperative is that residents have a voice and make decisions about the housing. Not just their individual home, but all 24 homes in the cooperative.

By submitting this application, I understand I am applying to live in a housing cooperative. Furthermore, I understand that I will be expected to participate in the housing cooperative meetings and events.
